

JOHN VACHA JOINS
IMAGIN MEDICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Vancouver, B.C. and Boston, MA, January 30, 2018– Imagin Medical (CSE: IME) (OTC PINK: IMEXF) (Frankfurt/Stuttgart Stock Exchanges: DPD2) (the “Company”) announced today that John Vacha, the Company’s recently appointed CFO, has joined Imagin’s Board of Directors, replacing William Galine, who recently resigned for health reasons.

With over 20 years’ experience in the healthcare industry, Mr. Vacha is well versed in corporate governance and the medical device field. Prior to his appointment as Imagin’s CFO, John served as President, CEO and Board Member of Intact Medical Corporation for seven years before it was acquired by Medtronic in 2017, and previously served as the company’s Vice President, CFO and Treasurer.

“John brings significant business management and healthcare perspective to the Board,” said Jim Hutchens, Imagin’s President and CEO. “His health care expertise is an ideal complement to Imagin’s Board at this stage of the Company’s development.”

John also served as Senior Consultant at Deloitte & Touche, LLP, where his clients included closely held high-tech manufacturing start-up companies, as well as large retail and manufacturing corporations. Mr. Vacha is a licensed CPA in Massachusetts, holds a MBA and a MS in Accounting from Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts and holds two patents in electrosurgical instrumentation.

About Imagin Medical

Imagin Medical is developing imaging solutions for the early detection of cancer through the use of endoscopes. The Company believes it will radically improve the way physicians detect cancer. Imagin’s initial target market is bladder cancer, a major cancer worldwide, the sixth most prevalent in the U.S., and the most costly cancer to treat due to a greater than 50% recurrence rate. Developed at the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory, this advanced, ultrasensitive imaging technology is based upon improved optical designs and advanced light sensors.
